

THE PYTCHLEY CHURCH HERITAGE TRUST

invites members of

THE ANGLO-AMERICAN ISHAM ANCESTRY ASSOCIATION

(prior to their visit to Lamport Hall on the 23rd July)

to visit Pytchley Parish Church, Isham Road, Pytchley, NN14 1EW
Northamptonshire UK

on Monday, 22nd July 2013 between 4 - 7 pm

Beverages and light refreshments will be served

It is hoped to show visitors the site of the Pytchley Hall Mansion -

The Gate House and to view a small exhibition in the church

Pytchley Hall was built by Sir Euseby Isham in 1596. He entertained Anne of Denmark, the Queen Consort of King James 1st, at this, his new mansion, whilst the King played bowls at Holdenby.

Isham is the neighbouring village and situated on the A509 Kettering to Wellingborough Road

The original gates, although altered, are still at Overstone Road, Moulton - A43 Kettering to Northampton Road.