

Mark Isham, Film & TV Composer

From his days as one of the pioneers of electronic music to his current status as a world-renowned film composer, Mark Isham continues to be one of the most prolific and provocative artists on the scene. He has earned many awards including a Grammy, an Emmy, and a Clio, in addition to multiple Academy Award and Golden Globe nominations. Most recently, he was honored by ASCAP with the Henry Mancini Award for Lifetime Achievement. His musical signature is evident in his memorable scores for such notable films as Crash, awarded the Oscar for Best Picture in 2005 (Isham's score was named Best Soundtrack of 2005 by Cinescape.com); Bobby, nominated for a Golden Globe for Best Picture; and The Black Dahlia, with its critically lauded jazz noir soundtrack (awarded Best Score for a Drama Film - 2007, and nominated for Best Score of the Year by the International Film Music Critics Association). He also composed the theme music for the ABC fairy tale drama series, Once Upon a Time, which premiered in 2011.
